

Host unit: Endoscopy Center, Department of Gastroenterology, West China
Hospital
Sichuan University

Address: Chengdu, Sichuan
P.R. China

Head of unit: Professor Bing Hu

Website: <http://www.wchscu.cn/index.html>

Short description of host unit

West China Hospital is one of the largest hospital in western China.

The Endoscopy Center has 42 clinical and assisting staff and approx. 1,400 ERCP procedures per year.

Training periods: March 2 – June 2, 2020 (3 months)

Number of slots: 2 (per module)

Documentations needed: GI certificate, Certificate of doctorate, Licence to practice as a doctor, Health certificate

Average living cost per month (est.): 350 US$ / month for accommodation, 150 US$ / month for meals, 50 US$ / month for public transport

Local arrangements: Host unit will be able to suggest accommodation nearby training ground

Endoscopy Center, Department of Gastroenterology, West China Hospital Sichuan University

Program overview

1. Basic knowledge course: anatomy and physiology of pancreatobiliary tree; indications and contraindications for ERCP; procedure complications and risk stratification; appropriate informed consent procedures etc..
2. Post ERCP management; recognition and management of complications; basic techniques training
3. Trainees will be observing first, then perform procedures under the supervision of our senior staff. It is strictly forbidden to perform procedures alone.

